

Rod Roy Snow Schools - Bus Bulletin 6

Good morning and welcome to Mont Tremblant.

We will be entering Mont Tremblant by the North Side. Please use a trail map if you are unfamiliar with Tremblant as you must allow yourself enough time to get back to the North side for our 4 pm departure.

The easiest trails down the North side are Sissy Schuss or Petit Bonheur to the lower Beauchemin. The easiest trail down the South side is La Crete to the Nansen.

Please remember that we interchanged morning classes to afternoon last week.

Class line up is at 10:30 and 1:00pm. Meet in front of the chalet.

Green Trail tour: Anyone interested in a tour of the Easiest runs on the mountain please meet Diane in front of the chalet at 10:35.

Blue Trail tour: Anyone interested in a tour of Intermediate runs on the mountain please meet Rod in front of the chalet at either 10:35 or at 1:05 pm.

Black Diamond tour: Anyone interested in a tour of the steeps, bumps and glades please meet Diane in front of the chalet at 1:05 pm.

Our last scheduled trip is:

Tuesday, March 4th to Mont Orford - Early morning bus departure

At the end of the day at Orford we will be having a wine and cheese get together.

Please note that you have paid for 6 trips. If you attend all 7 trips there is a $25 cost for the last trip (payable on the bus the last day).

Departure time from the hill is always at 4 pm.

Have a great day!
